

I am on the "no-call" list created by Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. The Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter contacted me about this challenge to the law. I am in favor of the current form of the law. I do not think the "established business relationship" exemption has merit.